

I oppose the CBA's challenge to Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. I feel if I want to contact a particular business, I can do that. In return, I feel if I don't want to be randomly and continuously contacted by any business, I should have the right to stop them. By allowing CBA to bypass our current law, I can be assured I would be bombarded by unwanted phone calls and solicitations. I cannot think of anyone who would want this.